What's On in May 2019? Issue 2

No smoking or vaping in the garden, This summer the garden at the March Hare will become a smoking and vaping free area. This will enable our customers and families with children in the garden to enjoy a smoke-free environment. There will be no cigarette butts or smoking related litter, leaving the garden to remain a green and pleasant place. A smoking/vaping area with ashtrays is provided for your use at side of pub.

Take Away, Order your Take Away at the March Hare, sit in comfort and enjoy your meal with your drinks from the bar. Local take away menus available. We supply cutlery, hot plates and clear away after you have finished your meal.

Bring Your Own Buffet, At the March Hare we are able to provide a choice of reasonably priced buffets but you may prefer to bring your own cold food buffet.

fresh sound that is very much part of now. This group of musicians have the rare ability to sweep you away with their gorgeous three part harmonies, moving lyrics, infectious melodies and uplifting grooves. Among their many influences are bands such as Fleetwood Mac, The Eagles, The Swell Season and C.S.N.Y. Since forming in the home studio at Fred Cox's house in 2010, the band have over 500 gigs under their belt, creating quite a stir on the live circuit. Their fans or 'Housemates' claim their music is addictive and come to show after show. Fred's House scooped two awards at the NMG Awards 2013; 'Best Folk/Roots Band' and 'Audience Choice Award' as voted for by the public. Then again in 2017, they were awarded the prestigious 'Syd Barrett Pride of Cambridge Award' presented to them by Syd's sister Rosemary, for continuous hard work and achieving at a high level for the past 5 years. They released their much anticipated debut album Bonnie and Clyde in April 2014 and the follow up album Faultlines in 2016 to critical acclaim, grabbing 4 and 5 star reviews across the board. Their latest album, Careless, was released at the end of 2018. The March Hare bar will be there for your sustenance.
