3.11.18, Saturday, Folk night at St Mary Magdalene Church, from 7.30 pm. A series of remarkable gigs has heightened the sense of anticipation around the reunion of Tom Moore, Archie Churchill-Moss and Jack Rutter in the trio that won them the 2011 BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Award. Now seven years on, having toured with some of the biggest and best acts in contemporary folk music, they now reconvene to release their third album together. Widely regarded as three of the best players of traditional folk amongst a precociously gifted generation, their finely-crafted arrangements yield a rare potency. Their music features new compositions as well as ancient traditional material from Britain and Europe and focuses on their own movements from the countryside to large cities and the contrasts that come into play. Liberally sprinkled with a modern electroacoustic grit, this trio has as much to do with contemporary music as it does with folk or baroque. Of course, the March Hare real ale bar will be there.

5.11.18, Monday, After an early evening of firework frivolities with children and grandchildren warm yourself by the March Hare fire and drink your favourite beverage. A mug of hot chocolate, £2.20, or a cafetiere, £5.80, may be just what you are looking for.

Commonwealth soldiers had made the ultimate sacrifice. One hundred years later, we join together to say thank you to those who fought in battle, worked in the factories, planted the crops, nursed the injured and cared for the children. This Autumn Greene King will be brewing a special edition beer, Flanders Fields, in commemoration of the 100 years since the end of WW1 with 20p for every pint sold donated to the Legion.
