15.9.18, Saturday, Folk night at St Mary Magdalen Church, from 7.30 pm, John Kirkpatrick is one of the most prolific figures on the English folk scene, performing solo, in duos, acoustic groups and electric bands, and has established an enviable reputation as an instrumental virtuoso (melodeon, Anglo concertina and button accordion), as well as a leading interpreter of English folk music. He has been a member of the Albion Country Band, Magic Lantern, The Richard Thompson Band, Umps and Dumps, Steeleye Span, Brass Monkey, Trans-Europe Diatonique, and Band of Hope, as well as numerous ceilidh bands. As songwriter, composer, choreographer, and musical director, he has contributed to over sixty plays in the theatre and on radio. And as featured artiste, band member, or session player, his music can be heard on over 200 different commercial recordings. Of course, the march hare real ale bar will be there.

16.9.18 Sunday, Quiz, commencing at 7.30 pm, at the March Hare is about answering the questions and having a good time with friends and so form a team of 2 – 6 players. Test your wits against Dunton's best quiz mistress! The rounds vary each time and are lovingly created by Janice who points out that it's a light hearted quiz, but not for the faint hearted.

17.9.18, Monday, Games Monday, Traditionally pubs were places to relax and spend leisure time of which playing games was a regular element. At the March Hare we cannot offer you a private room to play chess or backgammon but we can offer you a social atmosphere where you can play a casual game of chess or backgammon for fun rather than glory where people of all levels can turn up to play. Bring your lucky chess or backgammon set with you! Any suggestions regarding board games are welcome.
