TASTING NOTES

MAINLY Dark Beers....(AND SOME OTHERS)

Beers served from bar, stillage and cellar

Nene Valley Brewery, Oundle, Northamptonshire

1. Bible Black 6.5% Barrel Aged Porter.

from the cellar

Champion Beer of Peterborough Beer Festival 2014 and brewed again last year but this batch has been aged for three months in ex bourbon barrels! It's now ten months old at least!

We have been fortunate to obtain a small quantity of this rare beer and its cost is commensurate with its strength and the effort invested in its ingredients, brewing and maturation. It is priced at £5.40 pint, £2.70 half pint, £1.80 third pint. Well worth the experience. It is a rich dark beer with sweet cocoa and dark malt aromas.

The blend of various dark malts gives a lavish chocolate flavour and coffee like bouquet.

2. Have Your Cake And Drink It 6.5%

from the cellar

A big chocolate stout. A smooth and rich stout with the addition of cocoa nibs for a deep complex chocolate flavour, and oats for a full mouth feel. An initial sweetness leads to a dark chocolate bitter finish. Chocolate cake in a glass!

Dispensed from craft keg.

This beer and is priced at £4.80 pint, £2.40 half pint, £1.60 third pint.

Titanic Brewery, Burslem, Staffordshire

from the bar

3. Plum Porter 4.9%

A perennial favourite. This beer is dark, strong and well rounded. The richness of such a rotund beer is brought to an even keel by the late addition of Goldings hops and natural plum flavouring. Multi-award winning beer.
