28.5.17, Sunday, Oak Apple Day was a public holiday celebrated in England on 29th May to commemorate the restoration of the English monarchy in May 1660. "Parliament had ordered the 29th of May, the King's birthday, to be forever kept as a day of thanksgiving for our redemption from tyranny and the King's return to his Government, he returning to London that day." Samuel Pepys's Diary 1st June 1660. Apparently it is traditional to drink beer on oak apple day, so let's raise our glasses to good old King Charles II.

22.4.17, Saturday, Folk in the church, come and join us at St Mary Magdalene Church where the acoustics are wonderful for folk music at 8.00 pm. Doors open at 7.30 pm. Tonight you can listen to the BeauBowBelles who are a London based four piece band of foot stomping, harmony singing swing folkers. They dragged themselves from their classical roots through the earth of folk, the dusts of country and the fires of gypsy swing. Their distinctive sound combines the swing, wit and class of a vintage vocal harmony group with the depth, heart and energy of a contemporary English folk. Their live shows are both virtuosic and glamorous with close part-harmonies, driving rhythms and soulful melodies. And of course we shall be there with the March Hare outside bar.
